When you plan a meeting, conference or convention here, your event comes with more than just tables, chairs and a projector. Your agenda will also include history and culture, beaches and forests, and lots of spots for culinary adventures. Oh, and you'll meet some really friendly locals, too.

Hosting a conference or other gathering in the Astoria and Warrenton area is different than any place you can imagine. We offer unique, historic and interesting facilities to meet your needs. We can provide you assistance in locating transportation, catering, accommodations, meeting rooms and A/V equipment. There are many opportunities for group activities which will allow you to experience and explore all the charm of this coastal seaport.

Give us a call or submit your RFP on our website, oldoregon.com/groups. We would be pleased to discuss your specific event details. We invite you to contact us for a site visit of our vintage town set against a hillside overlooking the mouth of the Columbia River. We are eager to show you the area's many charms.
