Oregon's Winery of the Year 07

– Wine Press Northwest

The Columbia Valley includes a 40-mile stretch containing distinct microclimates that almost perfectly duplicate four of the world's greatest grape-growing regions: Bordeaux, Burgundy, Rhone and Rhine. It is our good fortune to be located less than thirty minutes from all four of these marvelous microclimates. Fourth generation Winemaker, Michael Sebastiani's classic and time honored wine making process has resulted in over 120 wine awards.
