Public Relations – Traditional PR efforts for your business and/or event such as press release writing and distribution, media kits, media bookings, pitches and opportunities.

Marketing – From marketing campaigns for your event to strategies, planning and support for your business, we have an extensive group of services and staff for almost any need.

Social Media & Email Communications – SMG is an award winning group in the field of social media and email communications. We help our clients set up their sites, manage content, build out followers and promote events through these digital mediums.

Graphic Design – Tap into our creative department with support from our in-house graphic designers. No project is too big or small!

Event Management – From event support to full-time management, production and marketing, our experienced staff can help with everything from logistics, additional staff support to full execution and live social media reporting.
