Successful Creations - Enhance Your Results!

Successful events require creative organization and expertise. If your goal is to leave an impression, or make an impact that will last a lifetime, you need an event production company with experience. You want team players who fit in with your organization and take charge of the event at hand.

Successful Creations produces events that generate incredible results for you and your business. While we specialize in events that focus on personal development and social activism, we plan events of all kinds. We excel in volunteer management and regularly work with organizations that rely on volunteer support. We are grateful for the opportunity to facilitate your event and, together, we will create an event that is a huge success!

"Hiedi is the consummate professional, even-tempered, detail-oriented and has excellent judgment. When I worked with Hiedi at our Portland convention, I knew we had to keep her. She now plans all of our conventions. She takes total command of on-site tasks. I completely trust her and defer to her judgment."

– H. Boghosian

"Hiedi is extremely efficient, hard working & motivational to others, while being diplomatic & subtle, cheerful & stable, intelligent & experienced. Her integrity and honesty is utterly impeccable. She is a profound asset to any company."

– T. Michael
