Steffan Soule's Creative, Theatrical Magic is recognized with a Kennedy Center Award for the Arts. Featured on National Television, his work for corporate events is outstanding.

When Microsoft introduced Windows... when Hewlett-Packard created an event for their upper management... when the Benson Hotel wanted to impress their corporate clients... when Nike needed interactive entertainment with no language barrier for their foreign customers, employees and press... when Paul Allen wanted to enliven a party, and when Bill Gates wanted a private show for Steve Balmer, Steffan Soule's Magic was there.

Portland Audiences deserve the best magic in town: energetic and elegant.
